STATEMENT

This statement is made in accordance with s.54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and sets out the steps that TSA Ltd has taken and is continuing to take to ensure that modern slavery or human trafficking is not taking place within our business or supply chain.

Modern slavery includes slavery, servitude, human trafficking and forced labour. TSA Ltd has a zero-tolerance approach to any form of modern slavery. We are committed to acting ethically and with integrity and transparency in all business dealings and to putting effective systems and controls in place to safeguard against any form of modern slavery taking place within the business or our supply chain.

OUR BUSINESS

TSA Ltd specialises in the recruitment of highly skilled technical and managerial staff focussed exclusively within the construction, civil, engineering and consultancy white collar industries.

OUR HIGH-RISK AREAS

We don't anticipate any areas of our business to be high risk. As we specialise in white collar technical and managerial staff, the steps we take to mitigate any additional risk are captured in our policies and procedures outlined below.

OUR POLICIES/ PROCEDURES

We operate a number of internal policies and procedures to ensure that we are conducting business in an ethical and transparent manner. These include:

- Anti-slavery policy. This policy set out the organisation's stance on modern slavery and explains how employees can identify any instances of this and where they can go for help.
- Recruitment Procedure. We operate a robust recruitment policy, including conducting eligibility to work in the UK checks for all employees to safeguard against human trafficking or individuals being forced to work against their will.
- Whistleblowing policy. We operate a whistleblowing policy so that all employees know that they can raise concerns about how colleagues are being treated, or practices within our business or supply chain, without fear of reprisals.

OUR SUPPLIERS

TSA Ltd operates a supplier policy and maintains a Preferred Supplier List. We conduct due diligence on all suppliers before allowing them to become a preferred supplier, including an online search to ensure that the organisation hasn't been convicted of offenses relating to modern slavery. We also conduct on-site audits which include a review of working conditions. Our anti-slavery policy forms part of our contract with all suppliers and they are required to confirm that no part of their business operations contradicts this policy.

TRAINING

We regularly conduct training for our procurement/buying teams so that they understand the signs of modern slavery and what to do if they suspect that it is taking place within our supply chain.

OUR PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

We will know the effectiveness of the steps that we are taking to ensure that slavery and/or human trafficking is not taking place within our business or supply chain if:

- No reports are received from employees, the public, or law enforcement agencies to indicate that modern slavery practices have been identified.
